

Church Entertainers Continue Concerts
 You've missed something if you haven't heard the "Musical Notes," Rev. Ben Griffith, pastor of the Torrance Foursquare church at 1207 El Prado, said today. The Moores have been entertaining each evening at the Foursquare church and will return in one more week, he said. These talented young musicians are adept on the piano, piano accordion, steel guitar, banjo, trumpet, and their whistling and singing numbers have been equally well received. They may be heard any evening during the coming week.

TO COLORADO
 Mr. and Mrs. James A. Obole will leave next week for a vacation at Loveland, Colo., where they will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Bullington.

"Public Notice"
ORDINANCE NO. 346
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF TORRANCE REGULATING THE PRESENCE OF MINORS IN PUBLIC STREETS AND OTHER PLACES AND DEFINING DUTIES OF PARENTS OR OTHERS IN CARE OF MINORS AND REPEALING ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT THEREWITH AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

"Public Notice"
 and entertainment, vacant lots or other unsupervised places, between the hours of 10 P. M. and 6 A. M. of the following day, official city time; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section do not apply to a minor accompanied by his or her parent or guardian, or any minor carrying an official permit issued under the authority of the Police Department.

"Public Notice"
 Section 1 shall be fined by the judge of the Juvenile Court not more than one dollar ($1.00) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00), or confined in the detention home for minors not more than 180 days, or imprisoned, for each offense. Any parent, or guardian having the care and custody of a minor violating Section 2 shall be fined not less than one dollar ($1.00), nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00), or confined in jail not more than 180 days, or punished by both said fine and imprisonment for each offense.

Ten P.M. Curfew for Minors Goes in Effect Tonight of amusement and entertainment, vacant lots or other unsupervised places, between the hours of 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. of the following day, official city time; provided, however, that the provisions of this section do not apply to a minor accompanied by his or her parent or guardian, or any minor carrying an official permit issued under the authority of the police department.

tration cards which they must have at all times. This would also serve as a check for the local draft board. It may possibly dislodge boys who have failed to register.

On Honor System
 "The hour of 10 p. m. was decided upon in order to allow all juveniles the opportunity to see a complete show at the local theaters and return home. Ten o'clock is late enough for any person under 18 to be out alone."

"The passes will be issued by the police department to all boys and girls over 14 years of age who apply for them with their parents. The passes will permit holders to stay out after 10 p. m. as long as their behavior warrants. Passes will be revoked by the police in cases where individuals show by their conduct that they are not worthy of the privilege. Minors whose passes have been revoked must be home by 10 p. m.

"In line with all new ordinances which recognize that the parent or guardian is held responsible for the acts and deeds of minors, the penalties will be applied to the parent or guardian. Experience has proved that this is the most effective way of educating parents and guardians to their responsibilities regarding the conduct of young people," Rev. Wheeler concluded.

JOINS MEET TONIGHT
 There will be an important meeting of the Youth Commission tonight (Thursday) at Larry Howdy's place. There will be a discussion of plans for Friday night and balloting on a new member. Be there at 7:30 o'clock sharp. President.

Parents Are Blamed
 Proposed by Councilman Nick Cucci, it was seconded by Councilman George V. Powell and adopted with Councilman Vern Babcock not voting. He explained he believed more time should be given to consideration of the measure than was permitted at the meeting Tuesday night. Rev. Wheeler told the council that "there's no sense in passing the buck now and delaying adoption of this law because it should be approved with the same good faith that we (the Youth Commission) exercised when we drafted it at the council's request three weeks ago."

When he was asked by Mayor Tom McGuire what he meant by "passing the buck," the Episcopal vicar said: "It has been indicated that you would like to 'lay it over' for a week or so. I can see no reason for the delay."

Chief Stroh told the council: "In nine cases out of ten, the parents are to blame for juvenile delinquency. If they would look after their children better we would not have nearly so much trouble with the boys and girls." Babcock's substitute motion, made after Cucci met the law be adopted, that the measure be held up for consideration at an adjourned meeting, failed to receive a second.

Just before the vote was taken, Cucci suggested that the council should "delay the effectiveness of this ordinance for ten days." However, Mayor McGuire pointed out that this could not be done in the case of an "emergency measure."

YOUTH COMMISSION HEAD EXPLAINS CURFEW
 "In collaboration with the police chief and members of the city council, the Youth Commission proposed for adoption an emergency curfew ordinance to be effective for the duration," Rev. Paul M. Wheeler, temporary chairman, said in a prepared statement following adoption of the curfew Tuesday night. His statement continues:

"The age of 18 years was decided upon for the purpose of proper identification of ages and as a help to the Selective Service Board. Persons 14 or 15 would claim to be 16 and it would be hard to prove if the age limit was set for 16. Persons claiming to be 18 will be asked to show their draft registration cards which they must have at all times. This would also serve as a check for the local draft board. It may possibly dislodge boys who have failed to register."

On a hot day, have "steamed" squash, because it's so easy to fix. Besides, squash is low in calories and easily digested, a warm weather advantage. Wash and cut up the squash and cook in covered saucepan in just enough salted water to cover bottom of pan, until tender, about 20 minutes. Add salt and butter.

Broiled summer squash is luptop. Pre-cook squash until tender. Brush with butter or oil; broil 3 in. from gas flame for 8 min., turning once at end of 4 min. Or dip the pieces in well-beaten egg and roll in fine cracker crumbs before brushing with oil. Another way: cut uncooked squash into 1/2 in. pieces, brush with butter, oil or oil dressing, and broil with meat 20 to 30 min.

 SUMMER SQUASH a versatile vegetable

When the family sighs, "Oh, squash again," it's time to look around for new ways of serving it. If you're to use up all your Victory Garden surplus crop as Uncle Sam wants you to do. But with squash so adaptable to different methods of Gas Kitchen Cookery, variety is easy. Here are some suggestions for a starter.

Have you ever had "butter-boiled" summer squash? It's new-flavored. Wash the squash well—do not peel unless skin is tough. Slice or cut into pieces. Simmer or stew in covered frying pan, containing enough melted butter to cover bottom of pan (2 tbs. for each pound of squash). Still tender, about 15 minutes. Stir occasionally. Season.

 for trips on and after FRIDAY, JULY 16
 You will need a reservation for coach trips on S.P. trains on and after July 16.
 We cannot make coach reservations by telephone.
 No coach reservations will be made unless you have a ticket.
 MANY of our trains are overcrowded, with people standing in coaches and sleeping in the aisles. Frequently trains leave people waiting at stations because there is no room for them. Obviously something must be done to correct the situation.
 Coach reservations will be made for definite trains, but not for specific cars or seats. This means that you will usually find a seat but there will be times when people will have to stand because of emergencies.
 We cannot make coach reservations by telephone because of the load on telephone lines, and no coach reservations will be made unless you have a ticket. You must get your ticket and reservations at an S.P. ticket office. If you now have a ticket you will have to make a reservation.
